THE LEMON GROVE REVIEW

A League of Your Own

by Joe Naiman

The adult sports leagues of East County's park and recreation departments are offering a wide range of activities from which to choose.

At present, some are in full swing, while others have information packets available for the upcoming seasons.

Softball, volleyball and basketball won't get most adults a college scholarship or a pro career, but fitness and a social life encourage many to participate in the recreational activities.

Santee

Santee's Community Services Department will be running volleyball and basketball leagues to succeed the ones whose seasons are coming to a close this month.

Currently, volleyball has an A league and a B league with seven teams in each, but registration for the summer league is June 2 - 3 and teams can pick up packets about three weeks prior to registration.

Individuals without current team affiliations can also participate in the activities. There is a list of individuals seeking teams.

Those looking for spots on teams can obtain copies of schedules and call coaches to inquire about openings.

Basketball will also have registration June 2 - 3, with informational packets available at the same time as volleyball. There is a matching service between individuals and teams.

That same opportunity for individuals to join existing teams will allow participation in Santee's softball leagues, which started in April.

The leagues, which play at Santana High School, except for Sunday morning games at Woodglen Vista Park, will go through August.

Santee's current softball season has a women's league with eight teams, three men's leagues – 24 teams, and four co-rec leagues – 31 teams.

Information on all of Santee's adult sports leagues, as well as other recreational programs, can be obtained from the Recreation Office at 10144 Mission Gorge Road or by calling Recreation Program Supervisor Scott Bruns at 258-4182.

Spring Valley

The Spring Valley softball leagues will commence with an organizational meeting Thursday at the community center, 8735 Jamacha Blvd. The meeting for the co-ed leagues will be at 7 p.m. and the meeting on the men's leagues will be at 8.

Although the organizational meeting will be at the community center, the leagues will play on the new fields at the Sweetwater Lane Sports Complex. Play will begin in June.

Co-ed volleyball began its spring season April 19; the league's games are played at Monte Vista High School.

In addition to the league, Monte Vista High School is also the site of open gym volleyball, sponsored by Spring Valley Parks and Recreation.

Open gym runs from 5 to 8:30 Sunday evenings, with a $2 fee. Instruction is also offered at the gym sessions; all skill levels are invited.

Additional information on Spring Valley Parks and Recreation's adult leagues can be obtained by calling 479-1832.

La Mesa

La Mesa's co-ed softball league is currently in mid-season; the eight-team league began play March 15 and will continue through the end of June.

La Mesa's league has a mid-season roster freeze which has already passed, so those interested in playing must wait until the next season which will begin in late July or early August.

An informational meeting on the new season, which is expected to include both a co-ed league and a men's league, will be held in July.

Community Notes

Lessons on child health and safety offered.

The Grossmont-Cuyamaca College Community Learning Center will be offering courses on pediatric first-aid and CPR on June 6 and 20 at Grossmont College, room 345A. First-aid instruction will teach participants how to recognize and treat injuries, access emergency systems and develop first aid action plans. The cost is $5 for four hours of instruction.

CPR instruction will teach the participant the usage assessment, emergency action principles, rescue procedures for choking and CPR from children and infants. The fee for this course is $6 and meets state-mandated health and safety training requirements (AB243). Fees for both classes include certificate and handbooks. To register for either class, call 660-4350.

Child abuse really got to me

Call me thin-skinned, or wimpy, or anything you like, but I guess that in my 74 years I have not seen it all. I know that I should have, especially being on the senior patrol and being allied with law enforcement. But today, on our routine shift, it was a new one to me. We were called back to the station to "transport a person."

Sounds innocent enough, right? It was a five year old boy, subject of alleged child abuse, that had to be taken to the Polinsky Center up on Kearny Mesa. Our staff at Station 60, the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Station, removed him from a dangerous situation and taken custody. They had provided him with some coloring books, baseball cards, and other things to occupy his mind. And, there was an aura of real loving care by all of the personnel, from young to us old and grizzled senior patrol people.

We securely belted him into the back seat of our car #930, a very frightened and confused little boy. He was very submissive and responded to our attempts to comfort him with a very wistful shrug of the shoulders. I guess the thing that got me was he looked so much like my little boy Patrick at that age. We were not privileged with the information regarding the circumstances of his problems, but it had to do with the production of drugs in the home.

Thankfully, he fell asleep during the long ride to the Polinsky Center. He was very tenderly received there and we left him with the good folks there. I will never forget his little hand clutching mine, and wondering what was going on in that little brain.

This was my first experience with such tragedy. I can't help but wonder how often that same scenario is replayed daily in our society. God forbid that it is as common as I know that it is. I am sorry, but I was just consumed with the passion to scoop him up and take him home and give him the love he certainly deserves.

I know that Jackie and I are past the time that we should be raising children. The new mores and laws are so much different in concept and purpose than they were when we were in the child rearing age. In our time, if children were put at risk, any of the neighboring families would take them in. The churches were there for them and there would be love, no matter what.

First off, I would admonish anyone who knows of child abuse to report it. No matter the vast confusion and bewilderment that a child must go through in a Polinsky situation, it is much better than the injury or even death that is otherwise possible. I would hope that I never have to experience the pain of those little sad eyes, and that clutching hand of another such lonely and confused child. But, I know that it will happen.

Thank God that our RSVP has the experience and the compassion to handle the task. Weepy as it may be, the seniors will be there to help. I don't suppose that the younger generation would be prone to visit the Polinsky Center unless compelled to. But a visit would really open the eyes of whoever could bring themselves to do so. It will be a long time, if ever, that I forget Little Joey's (not his real name) wistful eyes as I said goodbye to him. I felt like his grandparent, and still do. God Bless you, and good luck ...

on teams may call Becky Jackman at the La Mesa Department of Community Services at 667-1300 to be placed on a list, which will be passed on to team representatives at the informational meeting.

El Cajon

El Cajon's slow-pitch and women's slow-pitch softball seasons began in April and will run through mid-June. Currently 24 men's teams and seven women's teams participate in play at the Kennedy Community Center.

The El Cajon Recreation Department does not match players with teams; players seeking teams are advised to go to the field and speak with the managers about potential openings.

New seasons will begin with informational meetings.

A men's slow-pitch informational meeting will be held June 23 at the Kennedy Center with women's full-pitch and co-ed informational meetings to take place July 7.

A basketball league is also in season at the Kennedy Center; that league runs from April through June with the informational meeting for the next season scheduled for Aug. 12.

In addition to the basketball league, open gym basketball takes place Monday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 9:30. There is a $1-per-night fee to participate in the pick-up games.

The Kennedy Center also has open play volleyball; those matches take place between 6 and 9:30 Tuesday and Friday nights. The $1-per-night fee also applies to the volleyball matches.

Additional information on El Cajon's leagues can be obtained by calling 441-1676.

Lemon Grove

Lemon Grove's basketball and volleyball informational meetings took place in late April, but the new seasons have yet to start. The current basketball season ended May 18 and the new season will begin June 1.

The upcoming basketball season is for men 30 and over; there will be an upper and a lower division and games will be played on Monday nights.

Individuals looking for teams and teams themselves may be placed on a waiting list by contacting the Lemon Grove Recreation Center.

There is still room for teams for the new volleyball league which begins June 2. Lemon Grove's current volleyball season ends May 26.

An organizational meeting for the upcoming softball season will be held at 6 p.m. June 1 at the Lemon Grove Community Center, 3146 School Lane.

The current season has been extended due to rainouts of previously-scheduled games and will end the first week of July unless delayed by additional rain. The new season will begin the week of July 13.

Six leagues are scheduled for the summer: the co-ed league will play on Sunday afternoon, the women's league will have Monday night games, the Men's D league will play on Tuesday nights, Men's B will see Wednesday night action, Men's A competes Thursday nights and Men's C league play occurs on Friday nights.

Additional information about Lemon Grove's activities may be obtained by calling Dave Huey of the Lemon Grove Recreation Center at 668-4375.

Lakeside

Lakeside currently does not have any adult sports leagues, but new Lakeside Community Center Director Gordon Stone has expressed interest in creating a softball league.

The Lakeside Community Center does not have adequate facilities for basketball or volleyball leagues.

Signups for YMCA swim lessons open

Are your children ready to swim away the summer hours? The Davis/Grossmont Family YMCA in La Mesa offers a variety of swim lessons for children ages 6 months to 15 years for all levels of swimmers.

Lessons are held in the heated, outdoor swimming pool. Safety is maintained through strict adherence to teacher/student ratios and certification of all YMCA staff members.

Classes are held in three or four week sessions on Monday to Thursday afternoons and Saturdays. Fees range from $24 - $50. Private lessons range from $40 - $90.

Children ages 5 - 15 who can swim one 25-yard lap of the pool can sign up for the YMCA's recreational swim team for only $35 per month with membership. The swim team meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

For more information and to sign up for swim programs stop by the YMCA at 8881 Dallas St., La Mesa or call 464-1323.

Soccer camp set for Grossmont College

The fourth annual summer soccer camp by the Hawver Soccer Academy at Grossmont College is scheduled to run from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., Monday through Friday, June 22 to Aug. 21, with a special goalie camp the week of July 20.

The 1998 camp, which is designed for players 6 through 16, is under the tutelage of Olympic Development Coach Howard Hawver, assisted by licensed coaches.

For information, call 265-0907 or 644-7879.

Trelford leaves Monarchs on high note

by Greg Eichelberger

Monte Vista roller hockey coach Bob Trelford (r) congratulates his team after a win in state playoffs in Huntington Beach last month.

After two phenomenal years as the head coach of San Diego's most talented (and honored) roller hockey team, Bob Trelford is hanging up the blades and heading for the lush valleys and snow-covered peaks of Germany.

But, despite his departure to Magdelburg for the next three years because of job obligations, there will still be a relative behind the box. Kyle, his eldest son, has tentatively volunteered to take his dad's place at the start of next season.

Trelford led his Monte Vista squad to back-to-back county championships and a third-place finish at last month's state Roller Hockey Championships in Huntington Beach.

He has compiled an impressive coaching record over his three years at the helm, with an unbelievable .900 winning percentage. And, he wasn't even going to lead the group when it first formed.

"I was 'drafted' halfway through the 1995-96 season," he said. "Our original coach just walked away, so since I knew how to play hockey, I took the position."

The Trelford legacy has been to teach his charges how to play the game without engaging in the rough stuff usually associated with the sport (on ice). He abhorrers gratuitous fighting and believes finesse and talent will carry the day, time after time.

"It's important to be competitive and aggressive," he said. "It's not good to be a goon and a cheap-shot artist."

Through this philosophy, Monte Vista has improved and matured, becoming the team to beat for the past two seasons, and is considered one of the best programs in the state.

Early last year, his players had a pretty good idea they were the top team in San Diego.

Their main goal was to move beyond that and be competitive on the state level. Playing seven games in two days in the recent Huntington Beach affair, including a 5-3 victory over eventual champion Pacifica, they just ran out of gas and finished third.

However, there's more to being a leader than mapping strategy and sending in substitutes.

"What Bob did above being a great coach, was to initiate fundraisers that earned money for the team," said Steve Newbegin, who briefly led El Capitan's rollers.

Trelford and his MV squad earned over $2,200 through various sales, including frozen food, NHL trading cards and candy.

They even manned a snack bar at last Sunday's Padres-Phillies game. The money paid for white "home" jerseys and entry fees for state tournaments.

"We're going to have a good team next year," he said. "Even though were losing Kyle Bridgeman, Pat Seger, Greg Arkwright and goalie Eric McKenzie, we've got a strong core and a terrific defense."

Seger, Arkwright, Noah Newbegin, Lonnie Lovins and others are currently ripping up the La Mesa adult league, but still miss the high school club competition, just like Trelford will miss coaching the Monarchs.

"It's like ripping a piece of my heart out," he added, "but, I'm looking forward to my time in Germany and maybe participating in the sport over there."
